Consumption and Asthma Cured by Inhalation.—This is the proper method of treating lung diseases, and lr. Curtis's Hygsana appears to us the more preferable from its simplicity as well as efficacy. Discarding entirely the use of the tube, the patient inhales in a natural manner the curative preparation, and in all cases, we believe, with the happiest effect. Invalids, suffering from asthma, or lung diseases, should test the virtue of Pr. Curtis's discovery. Physicians are prescribing it with the most flattering results, after exhausting their skill in the case.—[Sunday Courier.

Dr. Johns, one of the most celebrated physicians in New York, writes as follows:

DR. CURED.—Dear Sir: Having witnessed the excellent effects of your Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Clerry Syrup, in a case of chronic bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter irritation in affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, I can therefore cheerfully recommend your medicated apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying anything of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies. You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper. Respectively, yours, &c.
